Senior Personalities

JEAN AHERN

"A smile for everyone and everywhere."

Jean—"the girl with a figure"—has been a cheer leader for the last three years, and captain of the squad for 1938. A mere slip of a girl, she has bounded around our halls and into the hearts of many (including Bob Dean's). She belongs to the Commercial, Dramatic, and Journalism Clubs.

BOB BAIR

"The fire of God fills him.

I never saw his like;

There lives no greater leader."

Bob is president of our senior class. A member of the Honor Society, Student Council, Journalism Club, Dramatic Club, and College Club. Although he is so very active in all these things, he is especially fond of the 3:15 bell and Sunday afternoons. He plays tennis, football, basketball, the tuba, violin, and Jew's harp. Quite a versatile young man!

ALLEN BARNES

"Remember, it is as easy to marry a rich woman as a poor woman."

A. K. is a sport and we mean that in two ways. He has played football for three years, basketball for three years, and baseball for one year. Socially, he's quite a sport too; at least, that's what Dorothy Barto says.

DOROTHY BARTO

*"She seems as happy as a wave
That dances on the sea."*

What a rarity! A person to whom everything is "A. K."—need we add the "B"? It's not hard to see how Dot keeps that healthy glow when we know that she's in the Hiking Club. Dot's also in the Dramatic Club, and the Commercial Club.

ROY BARTO

"Truth is the highest thing that man may keep."

Roy, one of our quiet seniors, is a former man of the diamond. Roy is very much interested in one of last year's graduates. His pet hobby, we hear, is collecting Indian relics.

LEWIS BESTE

"Little said is soonest mended."

Lewis Beste states that he would much rather eat or sleep than talk, but does admit that he can "make some noise" with a guitar. Is that how you woo those preferred brunettes, Lew?

BETTY BETTS

"Thy modesty's a candle to thy merit."

Betty has a passion for football games, and can you blame her? She divides her time among the meetings of the Oread Club, Honor Society, and College Club. Betty hopes to go to Delaware and be a school teacher. If, and when, she learns to drive that car, we'll see her motoring down to the old University.

BILLY BOGART

"Thank God for a trusty chum"

Bill is the inseparable partner of Foster Hubbard. Besides being Co-President of the Student Council and Vice-President of the Honor Society, he belongs to the College Club, Le Cercle Francais, and plays tennis. He is quite chummy with "Barb" Plumblin, too.

NORMA BOWEN

"It is not every question that deserves an answer."

Norma seems to be quite a singing star. She has participated in the Girls' Glee Club, Mixed Chorus, Candle Light Service, and Junior Operetta. She doesn't like conceited people, but we hear she finds Fort Du Pont quite interesting.

DUNCAN BOYCE

"Who conquers self is truly a conqueror."

This lanky, blond Future Farmer of America seems to run some of our seniors keen competition. He doesn't have much to say, but is known to be a man of action. And, girls! It is rumored that Duncan blushes beautifully in the presence of the fair sex!

MARY BRICK

"A fair exterior is a silent recommendation."

"The candy gal of Conrad!" Mary belongs to a number of organizations around school, among them, the Honor Society, of which she is the corresponding secretary, the Oreads, and the College Club. She took part in the Senior play. Maybe you could tell me what is wrong with riding in the back seat. Mary finds something wrong with it, because she named it as one of her pet hates. That requires thought!

EMMA BRIGGS

"Gaiety is the soul's health."

Emma, one of our athletic gals, has given her able assistance at both basketball and ping-pong. Believe it or not she actually hates to see school close in June! Can you imagine that? What's this I hear about a certain fireman's son, Emma?

CHRISTINE BROWN

"Good to forgive; best to forget."

"Shorty" belongs to the Commercial Club and Library Club. She likes football, school, and work in the library; is an accomplished roller-skater; goes for blonds.

THOMAS BOYER

"Deep rivers go silently by."

Tommy is the quiet little lad who flashes around our halls in a bright red sweater. He is somewhat a mystery man to us, but to the girls of the sophomore class, he is quite a lady's man.

LEO BULAT

"I'd rather be handsome than homely;

I'd rather be youthful than old;

If I can't have a bushel of silver,

I'll do with a barrel of gold."

Leo is president of the Commercial Club, and quite a rigid presiding officer, too. He likes to watch the girls play basketball and softball. He plays a bazooka in his spare time!

DONALD BURKEY

"I mean what I say and I say what I mean."

We predict for Don's future auto racing; at least, he's getting plenty of practice for something of the kind. He even tries one hand driving (usually after dark). It is noted that the lad has been a very promising member of the *D.H. during the past year.

*Detention Hall

NANCY BURRIS

"She thinks much, but says little."

Had us stopped until we found that it was she whose name is "Annice". A pretty name to match charming ways. Nancy has as her constant chum, Norma Bowen. Annice, or Nancy, is a member of the Commercial Club and is making headway toward her goal of becoming a competent secretary.

FRANCIS BURRIS

"Let the world slide, let the world go,

A fig for care, and a fig for woe."

Francis Burris plays baseball, thinks baseball, and dreams baseball. In fact, we're beginning to believe that he really likes this sport. His favorite star is Joe Medwick. Aside from playing on Conrad's diamond, Francis was also a jay-vee basketball man. His "floor work" doesn't include dancing, but he does enjoy listening to Benny Goodman's orchestra.

RALPH CHALFANT

"All great men are dying, and I feel sick myself."

Ralph is quite the man about school. He belongs to the Honor Society, Journalism Club, and Library Club. He is business manager of CONRADIAN, and Senior Class Social Committee Chairman. Ralph took part in the senior play and the junior class operetta, "Harmony Hall". He prefers blondes, especially if the name is Dorothy. His all-consuming desire is to become a navigator.

ELEANOR CLARK

"The charm of her presence was felt when she left."

Eleanor's beautiful blue eyes, wavy brown hair, and rosy cheeks place her as one of Conrad's prettiest seniors. Eleanor is a member of the Girls' Glee Club. She likes to go to Church on Sunday nights!

HARVEY CLOUD

"A firm believer in the power of silence."

Harvey Cloud, Conrad's retiring senior, dislikes English and dancing. His big hobby is skating. Harvey also likes lunch periods and study halls; but, then, who doesn't?

VIRGINIA COHEE

"Happy am I; from care I'm free!"

Virginia Cohee, our middle-sized song-bird, belongs to the Commercial Club and Girl Reserves. She dislikes cranky teachers and fish, but likes noon-time and things that happen at night in school (?). "Ginny" plays the piano and loves to sing "You're a Sweetheart". Her favorite hobbies are dancing and singing little love ditties.

MEDFORD COLE

"Out for a good time."

Medford Cole, a merry, brown-eyed lad, is a sports devotee, having played on Conrad's football, basketball, and baseball teams. Medford confidentially informed us that though he enjoys sports greatly and finds great pleasure in Sammy Kay's band, his real hobby is girls. How's your collection, Medford?

OLIVE COMEGYS

"I'm from Missouri and I want to be shown."

Another of our cheer leaders, who belongs to the Dramatic and Commercial Clubs. She likes sports, and has participated in tumbling and volley-ball. Her favorite band is Tommy Dorsey, and her favorite companion—Bill McCloskey. Olive's ambition is to become a good private secretary.

MELVIN COOPER

"On with the dance, Let joy be unconfined."

Melvin (chop-chop) Cooper doesn't like the popular carrot-colored silk hose. His fondest hopes are to become another Fred Astaire. He is a member of the Commercial Club. Incidentally, Melvin has 12 years of perfect attendance.

ROMAYNE CROSSAN

"A rare soul indeed, a true friend in need."

Romayne's a quiet lassie. We can't tell much about her, but we know she belongs to the Commercial Club and the Girl Reserves. Despite the fact that she claims to dislike poetry, she has had two fine poems published in CONRADIAN.

RICHARD CROZIER

"He thinks, and his thoughts are golden."

Dick belongs to the "Richardson Park Tigers". He participated in baseball in '37 and J. V. basketball in '36. His two pet "gripes" are the Yankees and homework.

ROBERT DEAN

"Never was owl more blind than a lover."

Robert Dean, vice-president of the Dramatic Club, and a member of the Commercial Club, is also an athlete. He played football in '37 and '38, and basketball. Bob also enjoys swimming. His pet dislikes are homework and detention hall.

BETTIE DEARIE

"It would talk—My! how it talked."

Senator Dearie, our "human chatter-box" whom Mr. Sullivan calls "Gabby", is a member of the Commercial and Dramatic Clubs, and a member of the cheering squad. She recently directed a one-act play, given by the Darnoc Dramateers.

JANE DENNISON

*"I find you want me to furnish you
With argument and intellect too."*

That gal from Yorklyn seems to be quite popular among the "fem grads". She belongs to the College Club and Hiking Club. She dislikes French, but likes dancing and, of all things, "Solid Class". Jane wants to go to Delaware College to major in Home Ec. Is that so you can cook for Bill at Sunny Hills, Jane?

JACK DENNY

"The drummer-man in the band."

Jack employs most of his energy playing percussion instruments and hopes to continue this practice when he grows older. His ambition is to be a famous drummer in a well-known swing band. He is also interested in chickens (that is, poultry) and does well by raising them. He tells us he dislikes women! ?? H-m-mm. We wonder.

MARY DENTINO

*"A regular girl, her classmates say.
What better tribute can they pay?"*

Mary Dentino, one of our energetic, happy-go-lucky cheer leaders, seems bent on a business career. Goldey will probably be her favored school next year. Our Mary seems to have dramatic talent for she directed one of the Dramatic Club plays and did a good job with it! Aside from dramatic interests, Mary was a Commercial Club member and a class basketball player.

ELLIS J. DUNLAP

"Oh, give me those wide open spaces!"

Ellis is a member of the Commercial and Journalism Clubs, and was a member of the J. V. basketball team in 1937-38. He hates giggling girls and bossy teachers. Ellis enjoys the country and would like to be a farmer. Much of his spare time is spent on camping trips. His favorite sports are swimming and fishing.

MARTHA DURBOROW

"The very flower of youth."

Some hot summer day, if you stop at Breidablik, you will probably find Martha dipping up ice-cream cones. This fair little Miss doesn't give a "Hoot" for participating in school sports, nor writing themes and tests, but she "slings a mean dipper".

ELSIE EMORY

"A true friend is forever a friend."

to the College Club, Le Cercle Francais, and plays

Elsie Emory, an attractive student of our school, belongs to the music club, plays the piano and viola. She definitely dislikes people who yell; and where school is concerned, she is all for lunch time, gym, typing, and dances.

CHARLOTTE EWING

"A fine spirit and rare."

"A spirit fine and rare."

"Charly" is one of the many seniors who dislike book reports. She loves the noon hour so that she can dance. Quite a musical girl, Charly, just adores playing the radio and nickelodean. Her favorite song is "Martha".

DORIS EWING

"The one thing finished in this basty world."

Doris is that attractive blonde who abhors bashful fellows and homework. (Who ever saw a bashful fellow around here?) She likes the companionship the school offers and the dances, too. Doris seems to enjoy sitting in the hall the second period with—Oh, well! All's fair in love and war!

JAMES FAULKNER

"Always painting the clouds with sunshine"

Smilin' Reds Faulkner, with his red hair and freckles and his "moo + goo = foo", has caused us many a burst of spontaneous laughter. He belongs to the Commercial Club and is out for track this year.

MARIE GALLAGHER

"So quiet, so modest, so like a lady."

And it might be added "a lady of the house", for that is just how we picture Marie about five years from now, even though her own ambitions contradict us. Present plans are to enter Beacom in the fall. She is a member of the Commercial Club.

DONALD GILL

"Silence is the mother of truth."

Donald Gill will always be remembered for two things: his candid camera shots and his 'cello playing. Many of the Conradian's snapshots come from Don's camera. His hearty laugh has always made him a good "catch" for any Conrad jokster. He is a track man.

RUTH GALVIN

*"A little nonsense now and then
Is relished by the best of men."*

Ruth Galvin, another "giddy-girl senior", likes to dance and roller-skate. Every one enjoys her wise-cracking and good sportsmanship. She was a member of the Journalism Club last year.

MARY GETTZ

"Facts are stubborn things."

Mary has been quite active in sports during her stay at Conrad, participating in the Play Day Meet at Delaware College, 1938, and hockey, basketball, and tumbling, 1937. She likes art and does very well in it. She also likes a certain Bud Leighty. (We might add, she does very well with him, too.) Mary intends to go to Beacom's next year.

ALICE GOLT

"Merry as the day is long."

Alice is that laughing, likeable girl in Room 3 who likes to dance so well. Her cheerful personality has brightened the day for many of her friends. She is a member of the Commercial Club.

ELSIE MAY GOTSCHALL

"Her hair is not more sunny than her heart."

Elsie May is one of our few natural blondes. Her golden hair and blue eyes are the envy of many a brunette. One of Elsie May's favorite diversions is hiking. In fact, the word "hike" has several rather fascinating connotations for this blonde senior.

ROBERT GREER

"Look! He's winding up the watch of his wit. By and by he will strike!"

Bob Greer, member of the Dramatic and Journalism Clubs, goes for blondes in a "big" way; that is, all except those blondes who wear too much makeup. He likes to spend his spare time in dramatic work and with the fair sex. We will long remember Bob as Manuel in "Oh, Doctor" and as Brownini in "Harmony Hall".

BERTHA GREGG

"The curls about your brow, your eyes, your laughter."

The efficient typist for the CONRADIAN has a wide open career before her as a top-notch secretary. Bertha's sixth period is an idle hour for juggling typewriter keys and Fred Comegys around. She spends time riding horses.

JOSEPHINE GUEST

"No legacy is as rich as honesty."

"Jay" is a sport fan, likes to dance and sing, and belongs to the Hiking Club and Glee Club. She says she just loves good looking—clothes.

HARRY HAAS

"And he is lean and lank and brown as the ribbed sea sand."

Harry Haas does not go in much for sports, and hates dancing. However, we predict that a basketball team will some day grab Harry up. He could almost drop the ball in the basket!

MILDRED HANK

"Charms strike the sight, but merit win thy soul."

Offices and responsibilities sit firmly on the shoulders of this intelligent and capable senior! Secretary of the Oreads, secretary of the Dramatic Club, co-president of the Student Council, and a member of the Honor Society, College Club, and Cercle Francais, Mildred never finds time hanging idly on her hands. And we almost forgot to mention that Mildred performed very efficiently in the senior play, taking the role of Deborah.

ALICE HAMER

"A merry heart goes all the day."

Alice Hamer seems to be quite a sports devotee. She has participated in basketball in 1935 and 1938, track in 1936 and 1937, and volley ball in 1936 and 1937. Her pet aversion is conceited people. She likes dances, gym, art classes, and Harper Moore.

AUDREY HEINEL

"She mixes joy with reason and knowledge with mirth."

A quiet girl with a likeable personality. She belongs to the Commercial Club and seems to favor riding in a rumble seat. She is a cheering enthusiast at football games.

PAULINE HENDERSON

"She attracts us with her gentle virtues."

Pauline Henderson is a member of the Commercial Club and played on the junior basketball team in 1937. Oddly enough, she dislikes dancing. Someone told us that our Pauline is a "whiz" on roller skates.

CLARA HIRSCH

"— and still be doing, never done."

Clara, also, is active in school clubs. She belongs to the Oreads, the Journalism Club, and the Honor Society. She was another senior representative on the cheering squad. She intends to go to West Chester State Teachers' College. Regarding the male sex, Clara isn't choosy. She doesn't care whether they are blond, brunette—or red-headed.

CATHERINE HOOPES

"Give every man thine ear but few thy voice."

Catherine Hoopes is a member of the Oreads and Commercial Clubs. She doesn't like coco-colas and home work, especially over the week-end. Why not, Kattie? She also seems to look forward to lunch period and bookkeeping class. The piano furnishes an outlet for her emotions. Kattie professes a dislike for baseball and expresses a wish that some people would learn not to take such a long time to say so little.

MARVIN HORNER

"For he's a jolly good fellow."

Marvin, Jimmy Faulkner's pal, belongs to the Commercial Club and is manager of the baseball team. He is a fun-loving character with a ready smile; his favorite expression is "Foo".

SUMMERFIELD HORNER

*"Ab, why should life all labor be
When one can be happy and carefree?"*

We think Summerfield will go places. He may even have an orchestra of his own someday. He plays the saxophone, clarinet, and drums, and we know he likes music. "Plenty of Rhythm" is his motto.

FOSTER HUBBARD

"Faint heart ne'er won fair lady."

"Fos" is that "trusty chum" of Billy Bogart. He is a bit "faint hearted" around women, but he seems to manage fairly well. He has plenty of money, too, girls! But, perhaps we had better warn you—it belongs to the Student Council and the Senior Class, since Foster is our Trusted Tried and True Treasurer.

PEGGY HUBER

"Character is higher than intellect."

Peggy Huber, a likeable, rosy-cheeked senior, finds much pleasure in reading and paling around with Virginia Hughes. Have you ever noticed "the lunch-noon foursome" that always sits near the faculty table? Peggy is a member of the library club.

MELVILLE HUBER

"A pretty girl, a gallon of gas, four good tires, what more could I ask? Nothing, but more gas."

Conrad's suave Tyrone Power (or who?), is getting his start as an usher in the Aldine. Maybe he hopes to work up. However, his secret ambition is to be captain of the Queen Mary. Since it will probably be junked by the time he's old enough, he might not be altogether unsuccessful! At present, the high-minded gentleman contents himself with being a Future Craftsman.

VIRGINIA HUGHES

"The cautious seldom err."

Virginia Hughes, "Ginger", to her friends, is a member of the Oread Club, Le Cercle Francais, of which she is President, the Library Club, and was a member of the tumbling team last year. She plays the piano and dislikes conceited boys. "Ginger" likes her boy friends tall, blond, and handsome. Nice order!

ANNE INSKEEP

"She is pretty to walk with and witty to talk with and pleasant to think upon."

Anne Inskeep belongs to the Oread Club. She hates to be late for school in the morning, and likes to have her Latin homework completed. (A plea! —for more Annes.) As a diversion, Anne plays the piano.

EUNICE IRONS

"Never busy but always accomplishing something."

When anything "arty" is being done, you can always find "Eunie". From the looks of the "bouquets", she wears, her motto must be, "A flower a day keeps nothing (important) away." Her results seem to be good too. Eunice is an active member of the Journalism Club.

COURTLAND JONES

"And let us have wine and women, mirth and laughter—

Sermons and soda-water the day after."

Another "woman-hater" is Courtland Jones, Summerfield Horner's "side-kick". He is a music lover though, especially of "swing". He plays the saxophone and clarinet, and someday expects to be leader of the greatest swing orchestra. We'll be waiting to hear from you, Courtland!

GLADYS LAMBORN

"He that bath knowledge spareth his words."

We can't fail to say something about our collegiate girl friend Gladys Lamborn. She is a member of the College Club and hates whiskers over a day old. What are you going to do when Bill is taken into his fraternity? She likes to dance and play the piano. How about giving us the low-down on that diet, Gladys?

HARRY LARRIMORE, JR.

"And a woman is only a woman, but a good cigar's a smoke."

(Please don't forget the Jr.) Harry has taken an active part in sports. He has played football for three years; he has been manager of the basketball team for two years, and has been a member of the track team this past year. He hates Ben Hur perfume. (Remember that, girls!) His hobby is sea-scouting; he also claims to play the bazooka. Likes dancing and boxing; and he doesn't seem to appreciate operettas although he has taken part in two of them. It is high time he is learning to like them. How about it, Harry?

LESLIE LINDSAY

"Beware the fury of a patient man."

Leslie is our sports editor and president of the F.C.A. He is a member of the track team and goes in for archery in a big way. He played in the operetta in 1937 and 1938. As one of our school representatives, he had a fine time not long ago at the C.S.P.A. convention in New York.

ALBERTA LULLY

"A box of powder and a puff Dancing feet, and that's enough."

At last, we found out the reason Bert went to all the basketball games. A very nice reason, too. She is proof of the adage, "You can't keep a good woman down," for she's never still. Along with tumbling, volleyball, basketball, and hockey, she still finds time to be vice president of the Commercial Club and a reporter for the CONRADIAN.

PAUL LYNAM

"He's a friendly, good-natured fellow."

Paul is a lad with a keen mind and a nonchalant manner. He has been a shining light in our French Club. If he ever takes a trip abroad, he'll be able to converse with les mademoiselles. "Tres bien, n'est-ce pas?"

WILLIAM McCLOSKEY

"When pleasure and duty clash, Let duty go to smash."

—So says Bill, president of the Dramatic Club. He doesn't care for classical music, or the New York Yankees. (Some combination, Bill.) And, now that the year is up, we think it's safe to announce to Mr. Caum that Bill doesn't enjoy French.

EDYTHE McDOWELL

"A quiet personality often harbors a great soul."

Edythe McDowell, of the senior class, is a member of the Dramatic and Commercial Clubs. She took part in one of the three one-act plays given by the Dramatic Club on April 22. Her two pet hates are gym class and basketball, while her interests center in dramatics and football. For a pastime she likes to read and eat candy, although the latter doesn't show any effects on her figure.

RAYMOND McKENDRICK

"My heart is wax moulded as she pleases; but enduring as marble to retain."

Ray McKendrick, a blond male of the senior class, is an active member of the Dramatic Club. He took part in one of the three one-act plays presented by the Darnoc Dramateers on April 22, and is treasurer of the club. ("Have you got any money? That's all I wanna know.") He is also a member of the College Club, and an ardent tennis and basketball player. Ray is very fond of Miriam Sanderson. We wonder what she will do without him next year?

ROBERT LANE MELSON

"Give me a million beautiful girls, but give me one at a time."

Bob used to be shy around members of the feminine sex, but alas! this is no longer true. Entertaining bewitching ladies is one of his favorite pastimes. But, Bob has a serious side, too. He is a good student and is president of the College Club and Honor Society.

WATSON MILLER

*"I dare do all that may become a man
Who dares do more is none."*

Watson is the "glass of fashion and the mould of form" among the male sex. He enacted the part of Finley in our senior play, "Campus Quarantine".

ROBERT MILLER

"Pleasure and action make the hours seem short."

Robert Miller thinks there are too many rules governing students at Conrad. His most evident dislike is homework. Robert would like to spend all his spare time in Washington, D. C., driving a car, sailing a boat, and bowling. Evidently, Bob knows how to spend his leisure time.

ADALINE B. MILLMAN

"No one knows what he can do 'till he tries."

Adaline, the little carrot-top senior, belongs to the Commercial Club and to the Oread Club. She looks forward to the Prom and graduation with great anticipation. Her hobbies are swimming, dancing, and playing the piano. Adaline claims to be a very rapid talker, and with some practice hopes to replace Ileen Harris on Al Pierce's program.

ELEANOR MITCHELL

"A wise head makes a close mouth."

Eleanor is a little blond, with a sweet disposition, who has an unerring habit of saying, "Uh-h-h!" before reading her shorthand notes to Mr. Loucks. Eleanor likes to learn, but does not like to study. That's quite an enigma.

HARPER MOORE

"Worry and I have never met."

Harper Moore, one of our Future Craftsmen, likes all sports, not barring boating. He is especially interested in the Sea Scouts and—Alice Hamer. Well, she's a pretty good scout, too, Harper!

EMAJEAN MOTE

"A dimple, a smile, and eyes so demure."

"Sis" Mote is a member of the Oread Club, Commercial Club, Journalism Club, and the Honor Society. "Stardust" is her favorite tune, and we heard that "Racine" is her favorite masculine company.

RUTH MOWERY

"— and a cheek of apple blossoms."

The girl who likes to dance and hates blind dates. That's Ruth Mowery! She is a "Benny Goodman" fan, on the side. If you don't mind our being personal, how do you keep such a nice school-girl complexion, Ruth?

HERBERT NEAL

"Men of few words are the best of men."

That's Herbert Neal! He never has much to say, and true to his type, he hates singing. Neither does he play any musical instrument. He seems to be of a scientific bend, being particularly fond of chemistry and physics.

ELEANOR NELSON

"If you wish a thing well done do it yourself, never leave it to others."

Flaming red hair, that's Eleanor; the girl who hates salad dressing and alarm clocks. The only things she likes about school are the fire-drills and basketball games. But since she's such a good student, we rather suspect that she enjoys her studies, too. We'll let you in on a little secret—Eleanor's going to college way "daown" in South Cah-linah!

RICHARD "Dick" NELSON

"Taste the joys that spring from labor."

Dick is one of Conrad's polished baseball players, especially so behind the plate, a chest-protector, and a mask. Not a very large man (?), he is, nevertheless, plenty big enough to stop all that come across. And, by the way, if you ever want to know how to say anything in French, just ask Dick; he's always armed with a handy little French dictionary, just in case.

DOROTHY PEOPLES

"The world looks brighter from behind a smile."

An attractive blonde who not only can indulge in fun at all times, but excels in scholarship, too. She is a member of the Honor Society, French Club, and Oread Club. When Dot goes on trips that boy from Mitchell Field is bound to make a forced landing on the spot.

LOLA PETERS

"The glass of fashion and the mould of form."

"Pete", the finely feathered figure of fashion from Room 2, claims that she doesn't like to eat. What about all those peanut bars you've consumed since last fall, Lola? And, strictly "entre-nous", Pete likes the views up at Hoopes Dam, especially from a green Ford.

MILDRED PHILLIPS

*"Could I but talk and never cease
My heart, I think, would rest in peace."*

The girl that can be distinguished in a host of people by her infectious giggle! Mildred finds great delight in exploding in a gust of laughter during a reigning silence. She is a member of the Commercial Club and is usually accompanied home by Melvin Cooper or Medford Cole.

BARBARA PLUMLINE

"Honor lies in honest toil."

The girl with the flaming red hair, minus a temper. Barbara holds the offices of secretary-treasurer of Le Cercle Francais and treasurer of the Oread Club. She is active in the Honor Society and the College Club and all sports, particularly basketball and hockey. Has two steady companions to walk her home from meetings at school—namely, Bill Bogart and Foster Hubbard.

ENNIS PORDHAM

"I never dare to write as funny as I can."

"Oliver" Ennis Pordham, our Humor Editor, of CONRADIAN, is a member of the Student Council and the College Club. He "plays" the violin, trombone, banjo, and trumpet. He is quite a tenor, as we all discovered in his operatic role of Doolittle Work, in "Harmony Hall".

JACK PRICE

"Youth on the prow and pleasure at the helm."

Jack Price, a dark-haired Romeo, is from all reports a ladies' man. The latest object of his affections is said to be one fair-haired, well-known Junior. Jack would be perfectly satisfied with a few such small things as a steady income, a Cord, and a sail boat. More power to you, Old Man!

MARGARET REUSS

"Conscientious, studious, serene."

Peggy is one of our talented seniors—she sings and plays the piano. She wants to go to the new Trade School and take up dress-making. Maybe we have a future dress designer in our class.

GERTRUDE REYNOLDS

"Serve others as you would want to be served."

Well, here's Gertie! Always laughing—she's a member of the Commercial Club, Glee Club, and the chorus. She is especially fond of typing. She seems to be a great musician, too; plays the violin, piano, and the mandolin. Maybe she's a future star in Phil Spitalny's all-girl orchestra. We can never tell.

MARY ROACH

"A heart with room for every joy."

Mary Roach, one of our fun-loving Commercial Club seniors, particularly enjoys swing music and dancing. Says she, "My favorite orchestra is Bunny Berrigan's and my favorite song is "Star Dust". Mary also enjoys sports. Despite the fact that she wasn't a participant in athletics, she was a most enthusiastic spectator at Conrad's games.

AGNES ROSS

"Order is heaven's first law."

Agnes Ross seems to go for music in a big way; she is a member of the Girls' Glee Club, the mixed chorus, and plays the piano. She was a member of the 1937 operetta cast; we shouldn't be surprised to learn that she is planning a musical career.

BILL ROWE

"His worth is warrant for his welcome."

Bill shows action plus in the many offices he holds. He is Editor of our CONRADIAN, Vice-President of the senior class, a member of the Honor Society, Cercle Francais, and Student Council. Bill's favorite companion exists in the form of a Junior lass, Edna Simmons.

ERMA RUSSELL

"There is no wisdom like frankness."

Erma Russell doesn't relish hearing people boast about themselves. We are in perfect accord with you, Erma. She would, also, rather than stay home, or study, take a ride—to Silverview?

PAUL RYAN

"Good nature and good sense must ever join."

Paul is a member of the Commercial Club. He doesn't have much to say, but we believe he thinks plenty—though what about, no one knows, unless it's—Peggy! He has a big appetite, likes to dance, and says he prefers handling a pen to a pick.

KENSEY SEIDEL

"I am a love-lorn creature, and everything goes contrary with me."

Kensy is the jolly, jovial, joking gentleman who likes to share his moments with Virginia Slack. His good sportsmanship and friendliness rank high with other members of the Senior Class. He has given us many an enjoyable moment in English class with his opinion of the modern home.

DORIS SELBY

"An unconscious tonic for the blues."

What jolly little senior miss likes to study music; that is, band music, centering her attention on the drum-major? Doris has eyes that will bear watching. They do things—whoo! She's played basketball for a long time.

PRICE SENTMAN

"He has a smile and he never loses it.

He has a frown but never uses it."

"Ike" is a curly-headed blond with a very changeable voice! He is a member of the Future Craftsmen of America, and a great help whenever a stage crew is needed. P. S.—Price prefers blondes.

MARY SHAKESPEARE

"The glory of a firm capacious mind."

One of our most demure seniors, Mary Shakespeare, is not only a member of practically every club in school, but is also the Treasurer of the National Honor Society and President of the Girl Reserves. Mary's ambition is to attend Delaware College and study to be a librarian. It looks as though you're getting plenty of experience at Conrad, Mary!

DOROTHY SHIRK

"A willing worker, a joyful soul."

Practical sense, demureness, and neatness characterize this little senior brunette. Dorothy, a member of the Commercial Club, is very fond of stenographic work and is looking forward to a business career, if matrimony doesn't catch her first.

RUTH SIDWELL

"Whatever you do, do wisely, and think of the consequence."

We know Ruth as a sweet, serious, attractive, likeable senior. She is one of those members of the Oread Club, who has a fondness for dancing. Her musical ability is also exhibited in her piano work. Her plans for the future? Ask Ruth.

REBECCA SKINNER

"Well-timed silence hath more eloquence than speech."

Rebecca is a member of the Commercial Club, Glee Club, and Chorus. She has a special liking for all Commercial subjects and hopes to be a secretary in the future.

DOROTHY SKINNER

"The well of true wit is truth itself."

The gal who hails from Virginia, has a touch of sentimentality about her; her favorite song being "On the Sentimental Side". She intends to go on to Beacom in September and come out a secretary. Dot dislikes too much makeup—uses very little herself. She is active in both the Commercial and Library Clubs.

VIRGINIA SLACK

*"So let us be jolly, and cast away jolly
For grief turns a black bead to gray."*

We all "Ken-sy" what keeps Ginnie's waking hours pleasant for her! We bet her mother doesn't have any trouble sending her to the store—if its that special drug store! Virginia is remembered as the pianist for "Oh, Doctor." Also, she is a good saleswoman judging from her success in selling ads in the CONRADIAN. She wants to be a nurse. We wonder why!

DOROTHEA SPATH

*"And fill the measure of the year
With thrill of happy song."*

Dot, the song bird of our senior class, is a member of the Glee Club and Dramatic Club. Book reports and homework on week-ends are her pet hates. Dot still insists that a formal commencement is the thing, but Dot will always argue for the sake of an argument. She likes all school activities and is glad Conrad has a young faculty.

JEAN STEVENSON

*"Not too serious, not too gay,
But a jolly good fellow in every way."*

Brown-eyed, dark-haired, intelligent Jean Stevenson is one of our most attractive seniors. She is the Commercial Club Secretary, and also a member of the Oreads. She "tickles the ivories" in her spare moments and hates to write themes and essays.

THOMAS STEWART

"He was plump and he was chubby."

"Tommy" Stewart is the trombone player in our school band. Surely, you girls know Tommy, better known as "Shotty" Stewart! Tommy doesn't like detention halls, but all we can say is, "They're not compulsory."

PEGGY STINITIA

"Very, very seldom in a hurry."

Peggy is an attractive gal from Hockessin way, with a magnetic charm—for Paul Ryan. She belongs to the Commercial Club.

RICHARD STRICKLAND

"All the women in the world would not make me lose an hour."

Richard Strickland, one of our few reticent seniors, is a member of the Honor Society. He is very much interested in such sports as tennis and baseball. If you hear someone vehemently explode, "Oh, fuzz!" don't be surprised. It's only Dick letting off steam in his favorite way.

BESSIE SYMONDS

"A good reputation is more valuable than money."

Bessie is the popular brown-haired miss from Room 2. She warbles a bit with the Girls' Glee Club and tramps around with the Girl Reserves. She also belongs to the Typing Speed Club.

CASIMER SZYMANOWICZ

"Virtue is its own reward."

There's not many of us who have the desire to be a camera man—in Hollywood, at that! Here's hoping you attain your ambition, Casimer. Cassy belongs to the Commercial Club. He played basketball for two years. Cassy likes the lovely June Lang. Maybe there is more than one reason why he wants to go Hollywood!

BAYARD TAYLOR

"A nice, unparticular man."

Bayard never played football, but he was an active supporter as a member of the band. He is quite a drummer man, and goes for a certain little girl in a big way.

ANGELO TERRANOVA

*"He puts his creed into his deeds,
Nor speaks with double tongue."*

Angie's build and form deceive the best of us. He not only was All State center in football last year, but is one of the fastest runners in Conrad. He has more speed, power, and pick-up than Atlantic Gasoline. This Future Farmer likes onions and our fairer sex. Soon he will have to choose between them, since he eats the onions, not just grows them. Angie's one of our favorite after dinner speakers.

ALDEN THOMAS

"Happy the man of mortals, happiest he, whose quiet mind from vain desires is free."

Alden Thomas forms a nice combination of baseball devotee and pianist. There is no proof for his musical inclinations, but he does struggle for the local "Tigers". It's rumored around that "Aldy" has big things ahead in the journalistic field. Ambition—sports writer! His pet hate seems to be the "Yanks".

DOROTHY C. THOMAS

*"Sweet as the primrose that peeks beneath the thorn,
Her modest looks a cottage might adorn."*

Dot, our little, blue-eyed blonde, has been an invaluable aid to the CONRADIAN as secretary of the Journalism Club. She has also served as a reporter in the Commercial Club. Dot is musically inclined. She likes to dance and to play the violin. She also played a prominent part in the senior play as Beryl, the girl with chickenpox.

DOROTHY F. THOMAS

"Life without laughing is a dreary blank."

There's never a dull moment when Dot's around, or a quiet one either. She's the sparkle and wit of the French Club. Her motto towards males seems to be "Keep them guessing". She plans to attend Beacom College next year.

LILLIAN THOMAS

"Ambition has no rest."

Lillian is one of the most active members of the Senior Class. She is Associate Editor of the CONRADIAN, secretary of the National Honor Society, secretary of the Senior Class, and president of the Oread Club. It's easy to see that she does not believe in "Dally"ing around. Her sweet likeable personality has won for her a host of friends.

DOROTHY THOMPSON

"Blue eyes that all beguile and that sweet convincing smile."

When not consoling Ralph Chalfont, Dot uses her time studying and singing. She is a member of the Honor Society, Oread Club, French Club, Girls' Glee Club, and Mixed Chorus. On our recent trip to New York, Dot and "Subway" Hubbard found each other very congenial company.

GEORGE TINSMAN

"I'm sure that care's an enemy to life."

"Sonny" is a lanky, silent lad who hasn't paid much attention to the girls. He belongs to the College Club, and is quite good at handling ticket sales for class functions.

HAROLD MURPHY TWILLEY

"He is a good friend and merry."

Harold is a Future Craftsman of America. He participated in football in 1936 and 1937 and is tennis manager this year. The only musical instruments he plays are the radio and victrola. He likes dancing, Benny Goodman's swing music, and chewing gum.

KATHRYN ULMER

"Merits need no advertising."

Kathryn Ulmer is Conrad's speed demon in typing, doing, after a mere two years of practice, 60 words per minute. By looking closely, you may see the pin that she won for this accomplishment. What kind of cereal do you eat for breakfast, Kathryn?

DOLLY WALLS

"Shy, yes, demurely shy."

Dolly Walls is a member of the Commercial Club. She is rather a quiet person, with a sunny disposition, who does not like to write themes. However, she does like art, and wants to go to an art school after she graduates from dear old Conrad.

VERA WALKER

"My lady bath a smile for all, a kindly word for each."

A rare combination of quiet charm and shyness. She is a Commercial student belonging to the Commercial Club. Vera prefers to look on while others talk. In class she shrinks, very noticeably, from recitation.

THOMAS WARE

"He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread."

Although Tommy says there's nothing he likes about school, we wonder why he seems to be having such a wonderful time in the halls. Could it be the girls that provide so much interest? He is both Chapter and State President of the Future Farmers of America. We hope you have a big farm someday, Tommy!

HELEN WARNER

"Of manners gentle; of affections mild."

Helen—"Reds" to us—is a member of the Commercial Club. She was a member of the 1936 tumbling team. Helen is thinking seriously of becoming a dress designer. Her hobbies are drawing and swimming.

JANE WITT

"And the best of all ways to lengthen our days Is to steal a few hours from the night, my dear."

Jane Witt, our dark-eyed brunette from the South, first joined us in September. In a short time she had stolen her way into our hearts—particularly the masculine ones. Jane plays the piano and is a skillful tap-dancer. She and Melvin Cooper teamed together very successfully in a tap-dancing number at the senior reception.

AUDREY WORK

*"It's nice to be natural,
If you're naturally nice."*

A quiet "L'il Audrey" is Audrey Work. She likes to read, swim, and roam in the country. She doesn't go in much for school activities. There must be some outside interest!

THEODORE WORK

"The ink of the scholar is more precious than the blood of the martyr."

Ted will be remembered as Conrad's "Armchair Philosopher". His practical wisdom and advice have helped all his classmates. He is a member of the Journalism and Collegiate Clubs. He hates detention hall and school on warm, spring days. Ted is an amateur electrician as well as a piano player. His ambition is to become a "Flying Cadet".

CHARLES WORTHAM

"God bless the man who first invented sleep."

A Future Craftsman of America, Charles Wortham seems to dislike those lovely detention halls. From what we hear, Charles never had a chance—at sports. How we pity him! He says he likes to ride in a car, providing he doesn't have to buy the gas. The next time you start to eat pretzels, Charles, don't forget to drink a lot of water.

MARGARET WORK

"If she will, she will, and you can depend on't"

If she won't, she won't, and there an end on't....."

Peggy is a member of the Oread Club and is quite a pianist. Her favorite hobbies are swimming and dancing. Confidentially, she does not like onions or fish.

Senior Class Song

Conrad, parting time is nigh,
And we are sorry we must leave you;
School-day mem'ries,
With a sigh,
And a smile,
Will keep us ever true.
Through the years we've wandered,
Hardly ever pondered,
What we'd do when we would go away—
Time has come to think now,
We must swim or sink now,
Conrad, we have started on our way.

Conrad High, Alma Mater dear,
Conrad High, here our Senior year,
Has come quickly to an end,
Soon our pathways we will wend
Down the walk, at closing time
Courage, success, and fame to find,
Soon our school days will be o'er,
Leaving us upon the shore
Of the sea of life,
With its joy and strife,
Conrad High we will leave you here.
